DELIVERED

Victoria and Sveinn Sveinsson

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Sveinsson:

Re: R. v. Derek Harvey Morden Zenk

Thank you for your letter of today's date.

You may recall from my discussions with you about the photographs, that after our conversation regarding the Victim Impact Statements I informed you that colour copies of the photos were provided to both defence counsel and Chief Judge Wyant. The photographs were not filed as exhibits at the sentencing hearing, but copies were presented to the Judge and defence counsel and remain with these respective parties.

Because we did not want to have the originals lost or damaged, colour copies were made of the original documents, which have been kept in safekeeping for you.

As the proceedings have not yet closed, it was not my intention to return the photographs until the sentence is imposed. Since you have requested the immediate return of the original photographs, your request will be honoured and the photos returned to you. You will find them enclosed with this letter.

Regarding the 2 photographs received from Corinna, can you please advise whether you wish those photographs to be returned to you or to your daughter directly.

Yours truly,

Per:
